Week of Guided Prayer

What does it mean to live in God's time?

We often live our lives in linear time ... seeing life with a beginning and an end. Stepping back to view life from God's perspective, we open ourselves to new possibilities. Instead of moving from birth to death, we are invited to focus on God's transformative presence in all the moments and cycles of our lives. This Week of Guided Prayer will help us discover how in God's time ...

hidden in joyful endings are challenging beginnings wonderful new beginnings can be revealed through painful endings traumatic beginnings may lead to abundant possibilities despair can open into hope.

This Week of Guided Prayer will provide us the opportunity to experience God's presence with us through the moments of endings and beginnings of our lives. Living in God's time is trusting that God is with us through our joys and sorrows – our trials and our opportunities – we are invited to deepen our relationship with Holy Mystery-the Alpha & Omega – Holy Love.

Living in God's Time

Our Week of Guided Prayer is focussed on enabling participants to attend a prayer "retreat"
while still maintaining their normal daily routine.

Commitment to this Week of Guided Prayer involves spending 30 minutes praying scripture at home, and then coming to St. David's Presbyterian Church for another 30 minutes with a "prayer companion" each day of the retreat week, from Monday to Friday.

The opening two-hour session will begin at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 11,
and will include instruction on praying scripture.
The closing two-hour session will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 17.

This is an opportunity for you to grow with God through private personal prayer and sharing with a companion.
