Welcome: Rev. David Robert Parker

I'm David Parker, a graduating student from Knox college. I am originally from the east coast, growing up mainly in PEI but also spending some time in Newfoundland. I grew up in a mostly secular home, but felt God's call in early adulthood, and felt the call to ministry soon after. I arrived at Knox in 2019, interning at Runnymede Presbyterian Church and acting as a student minister in Kitimat BC this past summer. These days, I am focused on seeking a call, exercising, and enjoying whatever the city has to offer this summer. I am pleased, as always, to share in worship with others, and find it an immense privilege to pursue a career in which I get to tell others how much I love God.

Search Committee: The session is pleased to introduce our newly formed search committee. This committee will be going through the process of seeking a new minister for Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church.
