Welcome: The Rev. Dr. Sarah Han is an ordained minister, wife to a church-planter catalyst/ordained minister, mom to three rambunctious kids, and assistant professor of pastoral ministry at Tyndale Seminary. Sarah is a Korean-Chinese-Canadian third-culture pastor's kid turned missionary's kid and she grew up under the faithful discipleship of her parents, who were both ordained ministers in the Korean Presbyterian Church. Sarah is a graduate of Knox College and spent way too many years studying there by God's grace to complete her Masters of Divinity and PhD in Theology. She is a foodie and loves to hike and tend to her adorable chickens. She and her family live in Campbellville, just around the corner from NPC.

Search Committee: The session is pleased to introduce our newly formed search committee. This committee will be going through the process of seeking a new minister for Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church.
